President of the College

Welcome To Our Guests

A special welcome to our guests—the friends of Fort Hays State who have been, not only this year but also in past years, loyal supporters of the college and its athletic teams. Many have made possible scholarships and others have furnished jobs for our students. All have made contributions, not only to our athletic program, but to the education of many of our students.

For your fine support and backing we are deeply appreciative. We hope that in honoring you this evening, we may in this small way express to each of you our thanks.

We hope that we shall continue to merit your support in making Fort Hays State a better college for young men and women who come to our campus.

May your evening be a most enjoyable one.

Tigers End '61 Home Slate Tonight

Fort Hays State ends its home schedule tonight by playing host to the Ravens of St. Benedict's in a Central Intercollegiate Conference game that could decide the eventual third-place team in the league.

The two squads are currently tied with Emporia State with 1-2 marks in CIC play. Emporia was a definite underdog in its game today as it entertained unbeaten Pittsburg State. An E-State loss would boost the winner of tonight's game into undisputed possession of third place.

The Ravens have not experienced the success of recent years this season, as they have compiled only one win in six games. Coach Ivan Schottel's well-trained squads won the league championship each of the previous three seasons and the 1961 aggregation was considered a co-favorite with Pittsburg for this year's crown.

Playing a tough schedule, the Ravens have won only against Washburn, 25-14. The losses were to powerful Hillsdale College, 20-0; Southeast Missouri, 14-0; Southwest Missouri, 7-0; Pittsburg, 26-0, and Omaha, 33-14.

FHS broke a five-game drouth last weekend by downing Emporia, 12-7. The other Tiger win in a 2-4-1 record was a 24-0 decision over Kearney in the 1961 opener. The Bengals tied Eastern New Mexico, 19-19, and lost to Northwest Missouri, 17-16; Colorado College, 14-6; Omaha, 26-0, and Pittsburg, 41-7.

The Ravens feature an experienced, well-coached team each fall, and the current version is no exception. Leading the linemen are all-CIC center Bill Maus; all-league second-team choice Larry Kaminsky, tackle, and end Dave Herne, the team's top pass receiver.

The Atchison team can use either Corky Jacobs or Glenn Hornung at quarterback—both rank among the league's top passers. Fullback John McGlinn is rounding out a fine career as a Raven workhorse, and halfback Ron Lewis, though something of a disappointment this fall, is always a dangerous runner. Halfbacks Don Kassing and Mike Poseley have been the better runners in recent action.

Fort Hays State has been slowed by injury during the past two weeks, with a half-dozen Tigers lost for the remainder of the season. Coach Wayne McConnell will call again on his improving linemen and the three-pronged offensive attack of speedy Dave Parker, dependable Wayne Schumacher and fullback Steve Worley.

In the history of the series, FHS has won only five times to 16 for the Ravens. Three games ended in ties. The black-and-white-clad Atchison squad has won five straight since the Tigers triumphed, 27-7, in 1955. FHS almost upset the championship Raven team last fall before losing, 26-21.

Next Game

FHS ends its 1961 campaign by traveling to Topeka to meet conference foe Washburn University next Friday night. The Ichabods compiled a 3-1 record in non-conference play, but have been unable to earn a victory since and currently occupy the league cellar. The Topekans have had a jinx over FHS the past three years and have a 17-6-3 record in the history of the series. The 7:30 p.m. game Friday will be heard locally over KAYS radio.

HE: You get both! Viceroy's Deep-Weave* Filter and the rich tobacco blend!

Compare the filter: Only Viceroy has the Deep-Weave Filter. Viceroy's Deep-Weave Filter is woven from a vegetable substance that's pure, and safe!

Compare the blend: Only Viceroy has this rich tobacco blend, deep-cured the slow way to bring real taste to filter smoking!

Basketball, Wrestling Seasons Approaching

With the Tiger football schedule ending this weekend and next, local sports enthusiasts are thinking more and more of the fast-approaching winter sports.

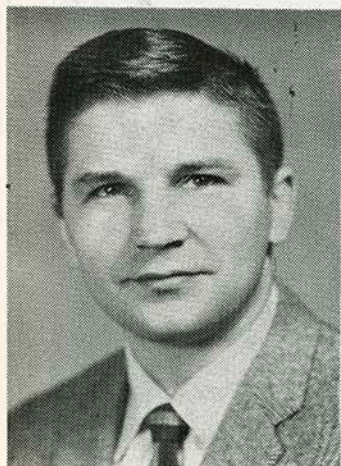

FHS basketball and wrestling candidates have already launched their pre-season practice sessions. The basketball squad, under Coach Cade Suran for the 16th year, has an early opening date this year, with the initial game just 24 days away. The Tiger cagers entertain Southwestern College of Winfield at Sheridan Coliseum Nov. 28.

Coach Walter Kroll's wrestlers, who compiled one of the school's best mat marks last year, open their competitive slate Dec. 9 with a dual meet at Lamar (Colo.) Junior College. The Colorado squad is perennially one of the top juco mat squads in the nation.

Both teams will be laced with experienced performers. Six Lettermen return in basketball, with several highly regarded transfers adding to the prospects. Kroll's wrestling crew will have experienced hands in nearly every weight class, with some promising newcomers providing a battle for the top spots.
